The image shows a musical score for the hymn "Bless the Lord, O My Soul". It consists of two staves of music in 4/4 time, written in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff continues the melody and lyrics.

Public Confession of Sin

O Lord, I marvel that You purposed to become flesh
so that You might be crucified, dead, and buried for me.
The tomb calls forth my adoring wonder,
for it is empty and You are risen!
Grant me to die with You that I may rise to new life,
for I wish to be as dead and buried to sin,
to selfishness,
to the world;
that I might not hear the voice of the charmer,
and might be delivered from his lusts.
Purge me from selfishness, pride, and the fear of man.
Grant me to stand with my dying Savior,
to be content to be rejected,
to be willing to hold to unpopular truths.
Grant me more and more of the resurrection life:
may it rule me,
may I walk in its power,
and be strengthened through its influence.

Private Confession

Words of Assurance and Pardon of the Gospel

For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by His life.

I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though my body be destroyed, yet in my flesh shall I see God. Alleluia!

Now we see in a glass dimly, but then, face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know as I am known. Alleluia!

*The Scripture Reading

Luke 19.1-10

He entered Jericho and was passing through.

² And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich.

³ And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature.

⁴ So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was about to pass that way.

⁵ And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today."

⁶ So he hurried and came down and received Him joyfully.

⁷ And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

⁸ And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold."

⁹ And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham."

¹⁰ For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."
